- Instruction for handling fish and tackle, fish identification, interpreting fishing laws book, strategizing and targeting specific fish species and care of catch.
- Opportunities to learn and share camp craft skills, woods lore, and cultural/natural history of the Katahdin Region. Opportunities to photograph wildlife, dramatic landscapes, and other natural treasures.
- Healthy portions of home cooked meals, snacks, and desserts, prepared outdoors on a camp stove and open fire and catered to your culinary delight.
- A chance to unwind and get grounded in the North Maine Woods.

What we supply: Snacks, meals, fishing traps, auger, bait, and tackle. (NOTE: Clients will be provided a detailed checklist of gear and personal effects that they will be responsible for bringing on the trip.)

As with any outdoor adventure, Mother Nature deals the cards when it comes to weather and intense cold. Our Guides are there to assist with adapting to those changes in weather, to keep you as comfortable as the conditions will allow. Following the lead of the Guides and being conscientious of their suggestions will help you and your group get through the challenges of winter weather. Bringing the required personal effects outlined in the provided checklist and employing those items when necessary will go a long way in ensuring personal comfort.
